This is in response to the Election filed on 14 April 2003.

I. Applicant's election with traverse of the invention of Group I, claims 1-12 in Paper No. 05 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that (1) a search for the inventions has some parts being overlapped only and (2) an additional and complete search for the non-elected invention is not burdensome. This is not found persuasive because an additional and complete search for the non-elected invention is burdensome.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

II. Applicant's election of species with traverse being acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground that there is not burdensome. This is not found persuasive because an additional and complete search for all of the non-elected species is burdensome.

III. The elected species on the record has been considered and searched. The consideration and searched are extended to the applied species. Other non-elected species have not been considered, searched or examined until all of the elected and applied species are overcome.

IV. (1) It is allowed to claim by a functional, characteristic, physical and/or chemical property of a material and /or process (In re Swinehart, 169 USPQ 226). (2) However, a claimed functional, characteristic, physical and/or chemical property of a material and/or process carries with a risk (In re Swinehart, 169 USPQ 228). Therefore, one should be carefully looked into it for his own benefit. Please also see In re Schreiber, 44 USPQ2d 1432 since it is reasonable that the Office is not supplied, provided or equipped with a sufficient facility to carry out a test for the functional, characteristic, physical and/or chemical properties as claimed in accordance with the authority stated in In re Best, 195 USPQ 430; Ex parte Maizel, 27 USPQ2d 1662 or Ex parte Phillip, 28 USPQ2d 1302. The language "form a liquid containing...at about room temperature" is considered as the functional, characteristic, chemical and physical property of a material and process.

(2) Within the authority of the Office being granted by the authority in the court of law, applicant is required to show or provide an evidence to the contrary to the applied material and process from the applied reference for the claimed property of the material and process as claimed for its patentability in accordance with the authority stated in In re Swinehart, 169 USPQ 228. It is should be noted that an argument alone (1) would be taken a place of an objective evidence as a matter of law (2) has and (3) is given a little to no value.

V. Applicant's prior art submission filed on 18 June 2002 has been considered.

VI. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-12 with respect to the elected and applied species are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kuykendall et al (6,534,253).

Art Unit: 1752

Kuykendall et al disclose, teach and suggest a method for making or obtaining a ferric (Fe^{+++} , Fe III or iron III) 1,3-proylenediaminetetraacetate or its adjacent homologue, ferric (Fe^{+++} , Fe III or iron III) ethylenediaminetetraacetate, comprising the step of (1) combining a ferrous (Fe^{++} or Fe II or iron II) salt selected from ferrous bromide with a alkylenepolyaminopolycarboxylic acid selected from 1,3-propylenediaminetetraacetic acid or its adjacent homologue, ethylenediaminetetraacetic acid to make or obtain up to 100% of ferrous 1,3-propylenediaminetetraacetate or its adjacent homologue, ferrous ethylenediaminetetraacetic acid and (2) and oxidizing the ferrous 1,3-propylenediaminetetraacetate to make or obtain ferric 1,3-propylenediaminetetraacetate as claimed or its adjacent homologue, ferric ethylenediaminetetraacetate. Please see the whole disclosure of the applied reference, especially at col.4:47-52, 5:43-45, 7:5 and 13-17, 8:65 to 9:25, 10:7-9 and Examples. Since Kuykendall et al disclose, teach and suggest the requisite processing steps and the requisite chemicals for use in the processing steps as the main and essential embodiments of the claims, the elected invention of claims 1-12 with respect to the elected and applied species are found to be rendered prima facie obvious by Kuykendall et al.
